Player Eligibility

Players can only play for ONE team during the tournament. Crossing over from A to B teams and from WorldNet to Big Tam Vets and vice-versa is strictly prohibited.

The only permitted exception is where players are helping another team get to their full complement of 11 players, as per IFA General Rule 6.4.

Players and Teams which fall foul of this rule risk being expelled from this and future IFA competitions.

Footballs

Two match balls have been allocated to each team. These are your responsibility and you are free to take them with you after the tournament. An electric ball pump is available in the pavilion should footballs require pumping up between matches.

Equality, Diversity & Inclusion

We gladly welcome all participants regardless of race, religion, gender, sexual orientation or any other protected characteristic. The abuse of any participant or official, either in person or on social media platforms, will not be tolerated under any circumstances.

Any participant, supporter or team that fails to extend this welcome to their fellow participants are not welcome to take part in this or any other IFA activity.

Match Conditions

As stated in the Tournament Programme, the Match Conditions are as per the standard Laws of the Game, with the following exceptions:

Playing Time – all matches are to be played over two periods of fifteen minutes, with a maximum five-minute half-time break - but referees have been advised to keep these to around 2 minutes.

Knockout Stage Extra Time – one Ten Minute period of “Golden Goal” extra time shall be played in the knockout stages in matches where scores are level at the end of normal time

Penalty Shoot Out – where Extra Time fails to provide a winner in a Knockout Stage match, the match will be decided by a Penalty Shoot Out. Only players on the pitch at the end of Extra Time are eligible to participate in the Shoot Out

Substitutions – teams are permitted to make unlimited substitutions on a maximum of three occasions during each match on a “rolling substitutes” basis. Half-time substitutions are in addition and are unlimited. Substituted players should leave the field of play at the closest possible point to speed up the game. In the event of Golden Goal Extra Time, one additional substitute occasion can be used. In the event of any injury to a player after the permitted occasions, one additional substitute can be used.

Disciplinary - In the unlikely event of a player receiving a sending off or two bookings they will miss their team's next match. In the case of any sending off, this should be reported to the Organisers by the official and further disciplinary measures may be enforced.

Kits

Kit clashes should be prevented by communicating prior to the tournament and messages have been sent to all team organisers to enable these conversations with the other teams drawn in your group.

WorldNet Knockout Phase

Teams will be positioned in their group table by Points Scored. If two or more teams have earned the same number of points, Goal Difference, Goals Scored, Head-to-Head record between the two teams and finally a Coin Toss will be used, in that order, to separate teams.

The draw for the knockout stage will take place at the close of play on the Saturday evening in the Pavillion. The draw will be communicated by broadcast message.

8 teams will qualify for the Cup competition. The 1st and 2nd placed team in each group along with the two best 3rd placed teams.

The remaining 4 teams will qualify for the Plate competition.

In both competitions, unless unavoidable, teams who have played against each other in the group stage cannot be drawn against each other in the first knockout stage.

BigTamVets Rules

As per standard WorldNet rules, with the addition of:

At least NINE players MUST be at least THIRTY-FIVE YEARS OLD during all action of the BigTamVets tournament. We expect all teams to fully respect this rule and the legacy of our BigTamVets tournament.

BigTamVets Knockout Phase

The winners of each group will receive a bye to the quarter final joined by the best 2nd place team. All other teams will be drawn at random to determine their qualifier fixture. Unless unavoidable, teams who have played against each other in the group stage cannot be drawn against each other in the first knockout stage.

Injuries

The IFA and its competitions are not registered or affiliated to the FA or any other body, and as such is not covered under the FA's general insurance terms. The IFA cannot be held responsible for any injury or loss sustained by individuals taking part in IFA competitions. All players compete at their own risk and by taking part accept that this is the case. Players may wish to consider taking out individual insurance cover in the event that they may suffer such injury or loss.

IFA Spirit

The IFA Spirit is our interpretation of the way in which we like our games to be played. One thing is not in any doubt – The aim of the IFA has always been and always will be to build bridges between groups of fans of different clubs by playing a friendly game of football. We know that everyone wants to win while wearing their team shirt, but the focus is on the true meaning of the word friendly, rather than the usual footballing meaning, throughout the WorldNet & Big Tam Vets weekend.

Put simply, we encourage good natured banter between our teams and believe games should be played with smiles on faces. This means there should be no handbags with the opposition, no disputing decisions with referees or linesmen and no arguing with or abusing opponents, team-mates or match officials. If a decision goes against your team, the captain or manager should have a word with the referee where appropriate and if you foul an opponent you are expected to pick them up if needed, or shake their hand.

We're not naïve – We all know those little moments that can flare up in a game of football, and no-one is expecting such Corinthian spirit to shine through 100% of the time. But the IFA has survived this long because it's different from the average football league and it's up to every player, every manager and every team to ensure flare-ups are dealt with quickly if and when they happen.

We allow rolling subs for this very reason – if someone on your team is acting up, sub them for ten minutes. That sharpens the mind more than a yellow card! Ask persistent offenders to change their ways or find something else to do in Doncaster this weekend.

So please bear in mind your responsibilities to the IFA's good name, whenever you represent your club. We are very clear about equality of opportunity and all players and those involved in IFA football should not only be aware of our rules regarding this, but should also do everything in their power to uphold those rules.

Everyone of us is responsible for this.

For those staying in halls and unable to car-share, we recommend you travel to and from the venue by taxi.
